

Paper Recycling

What is paper made from? _____

To supply the U.K. with paper we cut down a forest the size of _____ every year.

What things made from paper are most commonly recycled?

Where do you put them to be recycled?

What are they recycled into?

What paper can't be recycled?

By recycling paper we -

Plastic Bottle Recycling

What are plastic bottles made from?

How could you reuse a plastic bottle?

Where do you put them to be recycled?

What are they recycled into?

By recycling we -

Recycling one plastic bottle saves enough energy to run a 60w light bulb for 6 hours!

And remember, PLASTIC BOTTLES are the only type of plastic that can be recycled in Northern Ireland.

Glass Recycling

What raw material is used to make glass?

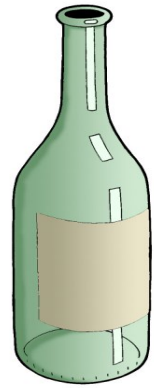

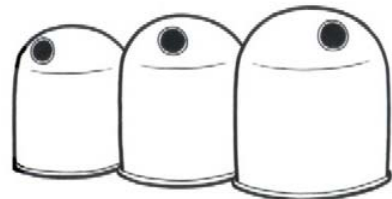

How could you reuse a glass bottle or jar?

Where do you need put them for recycling?

What are they recycled into?

By recycling we -

Only put glass bottles and jars in your recycling box or in the bottle banks!

Metal Recycling

Where do metals come from?

What metal is usually used to make food cans?

What metal is usually used to make drinks cans?

Where do you put your cans so they can be recycled?

How are the two metals separated in the recycling centre?

What are food cans recycled into?

What are drinks cans recycled into?

Why is recycling cans and tins a good thing to do?

It takes 20 times more energy to make a new aluminium can from raw materials that it does to make a recycled one!

